Town of Woodstock
Selectmen's Meeting
Tuesday, December 28, 2010

Selectmen: Jim Fadden, Gil Rand, Joel Bourassa
Staff: Sandy Dovholuk, Judy Welch, Bill Mellett, Steve Welch
Public: Patrick Griffin & Guest

Gil called meeting to order at 6:34 p.m. Jim seconded the motion and the vote was affirmative.

Public Participation/Patrick Griffin:

Patrick questioned why private and state properties are still being plowed even though it is against the law. Joel stated that the Board has made the decision to continue to plow them.

Patrick wanted to know the status of the documents he requested. Jim presented Patrick with a letter and showed him the only documents we could find. Patrick will stop by the Town Office tomorrow with a check for $23.00 and pick up a copy of those documents.

Patrick questioned why the cul-de-sac on Lady Slipper wasn't opened up full width when plowed. Bill stated that Mr. Degiso stopped by the town garage to thank the town crew and said he was very happy with the way the road was being maintained since the town took it over.

Minutes of the December 14, 2010 Meeting:

Jim motioned to accept the minutes of December 14, 2010 Meeting. Gil seconded the motion and the vote was affirmative.

Other Business:

Northern Pass sent an information binder to explain the project purposes to build a new transmission line. Jim would like to set up a meeting with Northern Pass for the town's people.

Roy Sabourn prepared a report relative to the "Unknown Properties" that he has been requested to research by the Board of Selectmen. Roy has completed 17 of the 20 properties in question.

Budget Committee meets tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. with the Town of Lincoln to review Solid Waste, Recreation, and the Community Center.

Gil motioned to adjourn at 6:54 p.m. Jim seconded and the vote was affirmative.
