

Town of Woodstock
Selectmen's Meeting
Tuesday, June 2, 2015

Selectmen: Jim Fadden Jr., Joel Bourassa, Gil Rand

Staff: Judy Welch, Steve Welch

Public: Kristen Bushway, Rex Caulder, Patrick Griffin

Jim called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. Gil seconded the motion and the vote was affirmative.

Kristen Bushway/Rocks Village/Noise Ordinance:

Kristen stated she lives at 9 Rock Village Drive and expressed her disgust with the construction going on across the street from her. She explained that this construction has been going on for two summers now; with construction vehicles and a crusher running 12 hours per day. She noted that the dust and dirt is so bad that they can't open their windows. She asked the Board to consider some type of zoning or noise ordinance.

The Board informed Kristen that they have tried twice in the last fifteen years to pass some type of zoning and it failed both times. They also informed Kristen that based on the information provided to the office the construction going on in Rock Village is compliant and is not in violation of the Excavation Regulations for the Town of Woodstock.

Review Property Abatement Request/Susan Reardon:

The Board reviewed an abatement request and supporting documentation for Susan Reardon. Jim motioned to abate the interest accrued but not abate the $19.00 which is for fees before the lien. Gil seconded the motion and the vote was affirmative.

Review & Sign /Authorizing Resolution/HealthTrust:

The Board reviewed and signed the HealthTrust Cobra Agreement, Retiree Billing and Membership Agreement, and the Application and Membership Agreement.

Review & Sign /Tax Map Maintenance Contract/Cartographic:

The Board reviewed and signed the Tax Map Maintenance Contract with Cartographic Associates.
