Town of Woodstock
Selectmen's Meeting
Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Selectmen: Jim Fadden, Joel Bourassa
Staff: Sandy Dovholuk, Judy Welch
Public Participation: Mike Hyland, David Scott, Alyssa Yolda

Jim called meeting to order at 6:30 p.m.

David Scott/DOT/Bridges:

David Scott oversees in house bridge engineering for the Department of Transportation. He briefed the Selectmen on 3 bridges on Route 175 that will be having maintenance work done on them from June – October 2010. David stated there will be one-way traffic with signals on each end of the bridge. The Board asked for completion to be done before the Woodstock Fire Department's Haunted Hayride which will be held October 16th.

Mike Hyland & Alyssa Yolda/ Bike Week Ideas:

Mike followed up with the Selectmen on work he has done regarding Bike Week. He stated that he has been in touch with the electric company and there is a live feed to the pole in the Municipal Parking Lot, all we have to do is activate it. He spoke with Jim from New Hampshire Electric and he will give guidance with what will be needed. Mike has also been in contact with Paul Lesard, who was President of Bike Week for 15 years and he will work closely with Mike to get vendors here. Alyssa represented the Chamber of Commerce to let the Selectmen know they are on board and will handle all the advertising.
